

TUCKER DINING GUIDE

The secret is out about the City of Tucker.

Voted by AJC readers as Atlanta's Best Suburb, Tucker is quickly being placed on the map because of its strong sense of community, beautiful parks, charming downtown Main Street and restaurants that foodies love.

In Tucker you can dine in what is arguably one of the most famous cafeterias in the South; enjoy craft brews in Georgia's largest beer garden; and experience a burgeoning dining scene where friendly locals wave to one another across the tables and where plates come with a side of, "How's your mama?" You'll also be welcomed just as warmly, and you'll begin to feel that Tucker Pride yourself.

Antico

4650 HUGH HOWELL ROAD BUILDING 500 SUITE 530

Nestled in the heart of Tucker, Georgia, Antico's Pizza is a culinary haven that transports taste buds to the vibrant streets of Naples. Renowned for its authentic Neapolitan-style pizzas, each bite is a symphony of flavors, with hand-stretched dough, San Marzano tomatoes, and fresh mozzarella creating a perfect harmony. From the classic Margherita to inventive toppings like prosciutto and arugula, Antico's Pizza crafts a dining experience where tradition meets innovation, making it the go-to destination for pizza enthusiasts seeking an unforgettable slice in Tucker.

Bambinelli's

2039 CRESCENT CENTRE BOULEVARD

Indulge in the rich tapestry of New York Italian flavors at Bambinelli's in Tucker, Georgia, a cherished establishment steeped in family tradition and culinary passion. Born in the Bronx, Bonnie Marissa Bambinelli brought the soul of authentic Italian cooking to Tucker in 1980, transforming a small pizzeria into a community cornerstone with her hands-on approach and unparalleled hospitality. Though Bonnie's legacy lives on through her son Joseph, who continues the culinary journey she started, Bambinelli's remains not just a restaurant but a warm embrace of familial connection, ensuring that each guest becomes a cherished friend, and every meal is a celebration of the love and dedication that has defined this Italian gem for over four decades.

Bell Street Burrito

4053 LAWRENCEVILLE HWY

Discover the irresistible allure of Bell Street Burrito in Tucker, Georgia, where each visit is a journey into a world of bold flavors and culinary excellence. Voted the best in Atlanta, this beloved eatery is a haven for burrito aficionados, offering a tantalizing array of meticulously crafted wraps bursting with fresh ingredients and robust spices. With its vibrant and welcoming restaurant environment, Bell Street Burrito elevates the dining experience, inviting patrons to savor the taste of victory in every bite.

Bite of Korea

4650 HUGH HOWELL RD SUITE 670

Embark on a culinary journey at Bite of Korea in Tucker, where the flavors of Korea come alive in a delightful fusion of authenticity and innovation. From traditional Korean classics to imaginative fusion creations, each dish is a masterpiece crafted to bring a sense of 'BOK' (fortune) to every customer. What began as a humble pop-up venture in October 2020 has blossomed into a thriving brick-and-mortar haven in Tucker, Georgia, where the warm embrace of good food and exceptional service awaits, promising to share the fortune of satisfaction and happiness with each and every diner since their grand opening on October 7th, 2022.

Cakes Castle

2319 MAIN STREET

Embark on a sweet journey at Cakes Castle where each delectable creation is a passport to international indulgence. From Kiev cakes to tiramisu cups and German chocolate delights, our menu is a global celebration of flavors, promising a unique and unbeatable treat for every palate. Satisfy your sweet cravings with our weekly rotating recipes that invite you to explore the world of sweetness, making every visit to Cakes Castle a delightful adventure in global desserts.

The Corner Cup Coffee

2380 MAIN STREET

There's a reason why AJC readers voted The Corner Cup Coffee as Metro Atlanta's Best Coffee Shop. Serving up great coffee and an even greater sense of community, The Corner Cup Coffee has become a unique gathering spot in Tucker. The Corner Cup Coffee brews locally roasted coffee beans served up by friendly baristas, pairing well with freshly made baked goods that are sourced by Atlanta-area vendors. The Corner Cup Coffee is a great place to meet up with friends and neighbors or to have a casual business meeting. You're also likely to become a part of spontaneous conversations among strangers and baristas and come away with new friends.

Donut City

1880 MOUNTAIN INDUSTRIAL BOULEVARD, SUITE A1

While the City of Tucker sleeps, the owner of Donut City is hard at work making fresh doughnuts and other tasty breakfast treats. Offering a wide variety of flavors, once you discover the delightful doughnuts made at Donut City, you feel like you've been let in on a well-kept secret, and you'll never want to get your doughnut fix anywhere else. Once you know, you know.

El Taco Naco

2255 IDLEWOOD ROAD

This no-frills spot is more than meets the eye and serves authentic Mexican food such as fresh tacos, tamales and pupusas that will have you hooked from the first bite. El Taco Naco is also a great place to catch Mexican League Soccer games while eating freshly-made guacamole.

Ford's BBQ

2337 MAIN STREET

The owners of Ford's BBQ have been fixtures on the barbecue competition circuit for many years so it seemed natural that they would take their passion and turn it from a hobby into a restaurant that serves up Texas-style 'cue. Growing in popularity since opening in late 2020, Ford's serves up delicious meats from their smoker in the back of the restaurant. Sip on a frozen margarita on the spacious outdoor patio while eating tender and juicy brisket and delicious St. Louis-style ribs, and you'll think you've slipped off of Tucker's Main Street and into Hog Heaven.

High Card/Blue Tarp Breweries

2316 MAIN STREET, SUITE K

What makes this place so unique is that it's actually two breweries under one roof. High Card opened in 2019 and when the owner of Blue Tarp was looking for new space in Tucker, the two business owners decided to share the space. It was a win-win for Tucker because it combined two great breweries together under one roof. This is the perfect after-work spot to meet up with friends or to relax and unwind after a nice dinner on Main Street. This tucked away gem is situated directly behind The Local No. 7 and Hot Betty's on Main Street.

Kobe Steakhouse

2080 HENDERSON MILL ROAD, SUITE C

Kobe Steakhouse has gone from a well-kept secret to a popular Tucker spot that offers up Japanese cuisine in a communal setting and cozy atmosphere. Whether you sit at the hibachi grill and become a part of the experience or at the sushi bar, your meal is sure to be entertaining and delicious.

La Glorieta

4010 LAWRENCEVILLE HWY

Discover the vibrant flavors of Honduras at La Glorieta, where Spanish, African Caribbean, and Indigenous influences create a unique culinary experience. Indulge in authentic dishes like hearty baleadas filled with rich ingredients or savor pollo chuco served on a crispy bed of plantains. Each dish is crafted to capture the warmth and tradition of Honduran cuisine, offering a taste journey you won't soon forget. Stop by and let your taste buds explore the best of Honduras!

Las Colinas

2327 MAIN STREET

This no-frills but cheery spot serves up flavorful and delicious Mexican food in an intimate setting. Enjoy dishes such as street tacos, fajitas, burritos and enchiladas that come generously portioned. It's the perfect place to sit outside on a sunny day while enjoying your meal with either a Texas Margarita or a Mexican Coke and watch the comings and goings on Main Street.

The Local No. 7

2316 MAIN STREET, SUITE A

The Local No. 7 is your classic local town bar that serves up good food while patrons cheer on their favorite sports team playing on the screens. When the Falcons, Braves, Dawgs or United are playing, it becomes a town viewing party. Try the John Henry Challenge: 7 half-pound burgers, 7 slices of cheese, bacon and a fried egg. Finish it in an hour and it's free. The Local No. 7 also co-founded the popular annual Tucker Chili Cook-Off that happens every spring.

Magnolia Room Cafeteria

4450 HUGH HOWELL ROAD, #10

Magnolia Room Cafeteria isn't just southern comfort food at its freshest and finest, but it's also filled with true Southern Hospitality in a refined and comfortable atmosphere. As soon as you walk through the doors you'll be greeted with friendly hellos. As you make your way through the line you'll wonder if you should just go ahead and get both the red velvet cake and a slice of pecan pie (the answer is yes). It's hard to pace yourself with throwback menu items such as smothered pork chops, sweet potato soufflé, trout almondine, and chicken and dumplings.

Matthews Cafeteria

2299 MAIN STREET

Open since 1955, Matthews Cafeteria is the anchor of Main Street. You know you've made it on the map when Guy Fieri pays a visit. Family-owned and operated that's now in its third generation, Matthews is known for down-home southern classics that are made from scratch in the kitchen. Enjoy southern favorites such as fried chicken, green beans, fried pork chops, biscuits and mac and cheese while sippin' on some freshly-brewed sweet tea. When you're here, you're considered family and when you leave, you'll be looking at tomorrow's menu and planning your return.

Munster Cravings

2323 MAIN STREET

Indulge your sweet tooth with the extraordinary creations at Munster Cravings in Tucker, Georgia, where each handcrafted, gourmet cookie is a flavor-packed revelation. Elevate your cookie expectations and experience the sheer delight of their 100% scratch-made wonders, from the irresistible PB&J to a variety of other ah-freakin-mazing treats that redefine the cookie game. Prepare to be enchanted by Munster Cravings' commitment to freshness and innovation, ensuring every bite is a delicious testament to their mission of providing the best cookies you've ever had.

Tucker Brewing Company

2003 S. BIBB DRIVE

Tucker Brewing Company is a family-owned and operated brewery located near downtown Tucker. An integral part of the Tucker community, anytime is a great time to stop by Tucker Brewing for a fresh German style beer and delicious food from their scratch kitchen. From Wednesday night trivia to beer releases and live music, something is always happening at Tucker Brewing. Try a TKR Pilsner in the 8,500 square foot beer garden, the largest of its kind in Georgia, or enjoy a flight inside in a space that embodies the spirit of an old European brewery. The atmosphere is definitely warm and welcoming for all, including children and dogs. Crafted in a chef-driven kitchen, the food is sophisticated but very approachable and will surely satisfy any foodie's palate. Each menu item comes with beer pairing recommendations curated by their Head Brewmaster.

Tucker Farmers Market

4882 LAVISTA ROAD

The Tucker Farmers Market will allow you to enjoy fresh regional produce on your own kitchen table. A diverse group of local farmers, bakers, growers and producers from around Tucker, metro Atlanta, and across Georgia, sell fresh local produce, flowers, cheese, baked goods, meat, and prepared foods every Thursday afternoon from April through December. You can order year-round at tuckerfarmersmarket.com.

Tucker Meat Market

2187 BROCKETT ROAD

Step into Tucker Meat Market, where the wide assortment of meats, tasty meal options and the warmth of community converge in a Tucker staple. Beyond being your go-to neighborhood butcher shop, they take pride in crafting signature delights like the legendary Mammoth Burger and the irresistible made-from-scratch Buffalo chicken dip, making each visit not just a shopping excursion but a flavorful journey shared among friends and neighbors.

Village Burger

2329 MAIN STREET

Village Burger serves up the classics that you love but with only the freshest ingredients. Known for their 100% certified Angus beef that's fresh and never frozen, Village Burger's motto is simple: "Be nice, prepare good food and things will work out." Plan to go on a sunny afternoon and enjoy your meal on the outdoor patio.
